HUDSON quality among the costliest cars that the enormous difference in price is so astonishing.
Today it offers the greatest price advantage and finest quality in HUDSON history. Never was this supremacy of value so outstanding. And the greatest HUDSON sales on record show how complete is public knowledge of the facts. Is there any reason to pay more? To hundreds of thousands of owners HUDSON value means the most comfortable service in operation and maintenance, as well as the finest in quality within hundreds of dollars of its price.

DERBY DAY.

BLUE RIBAND WON BY GLORIOUS DAHLIA.

SWEEP FIGURES.

Being Derby Day, large crowds wended their way to Happy Valley this morning, there being more than usual interest in the classic event owing to diversity of opinion as to the likely winner.
It was generally felt that there would be a big tussle for the blue riband, opinion being that either Sir Paul's or Messrs.
Toog and Priestley's stables would provide the winner, although Mr.
Dynasty was also largely favoured in some quarters. As far as weather conditions were concerned, the morning opened rather dull and muggy, with a distinct rise in the temperature as compared with yesterday.

The chief event was naturally one of considerable concern to ticket-holders in the big sweeps, most of which were drawn for last night. Unlucky speculators on the pari-mutuel and cash sweeps yesterday also hoped to make good their losses to-day, and there was no diminution in the patronage at the booths.

On the first day's racing, Messrs. Dyer and Beith's stables came out on top, with three wins, followed by Mr. R. M. Austin and Messrs. Toog and Priestley with two each. Sir Paul had one win and three seconds. Of the jockeys, Lieut. Comdr. Thompson headed the list with three wins, followed by Mr. Matland with two wins, one second and one third; and Mr. Sokoloff with two wins.

THE CHINESE TARIFF PROBLEM.

BRITISH LOAN REDEMPTION PROPOSALS.

CANTON-HANKOW RLY.

Peking, Feb. 18.—The British delegation has submitted the following fresh proposals to the tariff conference:

1. From 9,000,000 to 10,000,000 yuan out of the additional tax revenues shall be used for the redemption of the Tientsin-Pukow and the Canton-Hankow railway loans according to the provisions of the contract that the loans will be redeemed with the customs revenues when likin is abolished.

2. For the redemption of other railway loans a special loan shall be raised apart from the loan to be raised for the redemption of other loans and 10,000,000 yuan out of the additional tax revenues shall be put aside for the payment of railway loans.

3. To levy a special additional tax of a quarter per cent. on top of the additional tax to go to the fund for the abolition of likin.

The railway loan readjustment plan as proposed by Britain is favoured by France and Belgium, and from this it has become convincingly clear that some of the Powers attach more importance to the repayment of the loans than to the tariff itself, and are eager to profit by the imposition of heavier import duty on Japanese exports to China.—Osaka Mainichi.

CANTON EXODUS.

BOYCOTT RESTRICTIONS EASING OFF.

With the lifting of the Customs ban, there is a marked increase in the number of passengers arriving here from Canton. The number brought down yesterday morning was well over three hundred, and a police official, alluding to this large contingent, remarked that it was the largest number brought down at any one time since the strike.

Information is to hand also that the restrictions against the landing of passengers in Canton have been very much eased. There is being permitted a much freer movement of passengers, who experience very little difficulty in the way of "squeeze" or levies.

It is learned that for the payment of the sum of fifty cents, passengers going up from Hongkong are given passage in motor boats, of which quite a large number appear to be put to this use on the Canton River just now.

MOTOR MISHAPS.

YESTERDAY'S ACCIDENTS.

Several accidents occurred yesterday.

A Chinese female was knocked down by a motor car in Queen's Road East, near the Post Office, and was injured in the left foot.
She was sent to the Government Civil Hospital.

As a car was being taken out of a garage in Matheson Street, it knocked down a Chinese boy aged ten years. He received injuries to his face, and was taken to the French Hospital.

As a result of being knocked down at Quarry Point, a Chinese boy, aged 15, was taken to the Government Civil Hospital.

When a coolie was taking his ricksha to the Star ferry, a motor car ran into the back of the ricksha, inflicting damages to the extent of $20. No one was injured.

CANTON ARMY.

CHANG'S RESIGNATION EXPLAINED.

RUSSIANS LEAVE.

The reports of the resignation of General Chang Kai-shek from the office of Garrison Commandant at Canton, and from the newly-created post of Inspector-General, are not regarded in Canton as possessing any special significance. On his return from the front, General Chang had already declined to resume the post of Garrison Commandant but he found it necessary to resume the post when he found that the Headquarters of the Garrison was being carried on at an enormous monthly expenditure which, he stated in his report to the Government, was out of all proportion to the efficiency of the staff and forces. Moreover, he found that the discipline and efficiency of the Garrison had so degenerated that corruption was rampant in every department, and he came to the conclusion that it would be better to abolish this expensive organisation altogether, since the entire military system was now under the direct control of a Committee of Military Affairs.

On this account, General Chang has sent in his resignation for the second time, and has recommended its entire abolition of the post. It is said that Mr. Wang Ching-wai had two interviews with General Chang on the necessity of retaining the Garrison, on the ground that it had been established as a National Guard, in contradistinction to the forces of the regular Army; but it is said that General Chang remains adamant in his decision.

In connection with the reported corruption in the Garrison, it is said that General Wong Mow-kung, who had been acting as Commandant while General Chang was on active service, also holding concurrently the post of the General Officer Commanding the 2nd Division of the 1st Army Corps, has been arrested and is now under detention at Whampoa for incompetency and negligence of duty as a Commanding Officer.

As regards General Chang's refusal to accept the post of Military Inspector General, this follows the usual custom of Chinese officials, who out of courtesy, generally do so for the second time. It may be taken that General Chang is not at present ready to take over the position, or that the time is not ripe for him to do so. Eventually, it is believed, he will be persuaded to accept it.

It is further stated that General Lau Che has been appointed acting General Officer Commanding the 2nd Division of the 1st Army Corps, vacated by Wong Mow-kung.
Since the Chinese New Year, there have been several resignations of Russian officers who have departed for home. The latest one reported is that of M. Logarkoff, the Chief of the General Staff, who has sent in his resignation to the Military Council, for the reason that he has been ordered home for service by the Russian Soviet. It is said that his resignation has been accepted and that the Military Council has delivered to him a letter appointing him high adviser on military affairs.

There is now a rumour in Canton that Dr. C. C. Wu, Mr. Sun Fo, Mr. Tang Chak-yu and General Wu Te-ching are all leaving for Nanking for the ceremony of breaking the first sod in the "construction of the mausoleum of the late Dr. Sun Yat-sen. It is said, however, that the Government will under no consideration grant Dr. C. C. Wu or General Wu Te-ching leave at this particular time, when their services are so much needed.

The Committee of Military Affairs has issued orders to all officers below the rank of Battalion Commanders to be present at a

EXPLOITING MALAY FORESTS.

WOOD DISTILLATION SCHEME.

VALUABLE PRODUCTS.

That there are industrial possibilities in Malaya still unre-vealed is shown (says the Telegraph Singapore correspondent) by a new venture, which is now commencing in the jungle state of Penang. Although the distillation of wood forms an important industry on the North American continent and in Europe, nobody seems to have thought of using it to exploit the vast forests of this part of the world before, and I believe it is a fact that this plant which is being erected at present is the first of its kind in the Malay Archipelago.

This is a most economic way of exploiting our forest assets, because every product of the wood is marketable, and the cleared land can be planted up. Moreover, many species of trees in the Malayan jungle are of no value as timber. In this process the jungle is cut down, stuffed into a retort fifteen tons at a time, and a dozen different things are obtained. The most important from the point of view of commerce costs about 15,000 tons a year, but another product which has a local market is acetic acid, which is used in enormous quantities by the rubber industry for conglu-tinating latex. The other chemical products will require very careful study of local conditions in order to place them on the market successfully, but it can be done, and if the Federal Government will protect tenderly a single struggling match factory, they will give the same treatment to other promising beginnings. Malaya has very valuable assets in her forests, and also an efficient but expensive forest service. Some of the rarer Malay-an woods are very ornamental, while the annual exhibition of the forest service is a sight to delight the heart of an American Methodist Bishop of my acquaintance, who has a collection of several hundred walking sticks from every country in the world.

tioned regarding the Ellison case, cabled, Sir Austen Chamberlain said that Ellison had lodged an was watching the case. He added that the time for British Government intervention had not arrived, if it ever would arrive.—Reuter.

LEAGUE CRISIS.

HOUSE OF COMMONS ANXIOUS.

SIR AUSTEN'S PLEA.

London, March 1.

In the House of Commons, the Marquess of Hartington asked whether communications had been received from the Dominions expressing their views on the proposed increase in the permanent membership of the League Council.

Mr. Amery referred to Sir Austen Chamberlain's reply of Feb.
17 and that it was impossible to make a statement on the nature of such communications which were of a confidential character.

Mr. J. H. Thomas requested that the correspondence should be submitted before any debate, but Mr. Amery was not sure he would be able to do so and said it would largely depend on the views of the Governments concerned.

Mr. Thomas asked if it was not essential for the House to know exactly the Dominion viewpoint before a debate, but he was given no reply.

The anxiety of Members of the House of Commons on the League Council issue is reflected by questions, three by Liberals and one by a Conservative asking whether a decision has been reached, as regards instructions to Sir Austen Chamberlain at Geneva and whether the Dominions will be consulted before Britain is committed to any change.

Mr. Baldwin, in a joint reply, requested the House to await the statement he hoped to make later in the week probably on Thursday.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald requested a statement on Wednesday, and the Premier promised to do his best.—Reuter.

FOREIGN SECRETARY'S VIEWS.

London, March 1.

Addressing the League of Nations Parliamentary Committee, which recently unanimously passed a resolution urging the Government strenuously to oppose the proposal to make any fundamental changes in the constitution of the Council of the League, Sir Austen Chamberlain reiterated that the Government had not yet decided on its course of action.
He declared there was a real case for consideration of the composition of the Council. The demand that the practice of re-electing non-permanent members year after year should be abandoned was growing. He was immovably opposed to the suggestion that any State should be brought on to the Council as a counterpoise to Germany, but there was sound argument for increasing the permanent membership, since, under the Locarno agreement, possibly Germany and all the present permanent members, except Japan, would be regarded as interested parties and therefore unable to vote if a dispute under the Locarno Treaty were submitted to the Council.

Continuing, Sir Austen said the question of how could the Council be made most effective for the maintenance of peace and conciliation was the real test that ought to be applied, and not any counting of votes in a body where, unless there was unanimity, there could be no decision. Sir Austen contended that if on great questions the British representatives were required to define their attitude unequivocally beforehand, the delegates of other Governments would be forced into the same position and paralysis would result, owing to one State vetoing one solution and another State vetoing another solution. The only way to keep the door open to conciliatory negotiation was to

SINGAPORE LABOUR TROUBLES.

ALLEGED PROPAGANDA BY CANTONESE.

NO DEPORTATIONS.

London, March 1.

In the House of Commons, Mr.
F. G. Penny asked whether the Cantonese Bolshevik elements in the Straits Settlements were pro-pagandising and fomenting strikes, and whether the Chinese Master Tailors of Singapore had petitioned the Governor to have the Tailors' Guild broken up and the ringleaders deported.

Mr. Amery stated that recent strikes had been economic. The answer to the second part of the question was in the affirmative but the Governor had reported that the Master Tailors had not produced evidence in support of their allegations, and, consequently, the deportations had not been effected.
He declared that the Colonial Government was closely watching the situation.—Reuter.

WAR GRAVES.

PROVIDING THE COST OF UPKEEP.

Rugby, March 1.

Mr. Ronald McNeill, Financial Secretary to the Treasury in moving in the House of Commons, a vote of £48,700 for the salaries and expenses of the Imperial War Graves Commission, explained that last summer all the Governments of the British Empire, including that of British India, agreed to accumulate a fund until it should reach a capital sum which would provide in perpetuity an income sufficient to maintain British war cemeteries in different parts of the world in the manner that the nation desired they should be maintained. It was proposed that this capital sum should be £5,000,000 and it was estimated that the annual sum necessary would be from £200,000 to £250,000. It was in order to provide England's first contribution that the Government asked the House to vote £50,000, less some small savings, for the purpose this year and to vote the same sum for the next two years.
It was hoped that at the end of 15 years, by the accumulation of interest on these grants and with contributions which would come from the Dominion Governments, the sum of £5,000,000 would be obtained.

The vote was adopted.—*British

FOUND DEAD.

MOTHER AND CHILD ON HILLSIDE.

The bodies of a woman and a child have been found on the hillside above Pokfulam. Both bodies were badly decomposed, and they showed no signs of external violence. The woman and child had been missing since Feb. 17th.

When found, the child was strapped to the back of the woman in the usual fashion, and the position seemed to indicate that the woman had been sitting on the hillside, when she fell back dead, on the child. There were no signs of a struggle.

POLICEMAN SHOT

SHANGHAI CONSTABLE'S DEATH.

OPEN VERDICT.

That no challenge was heard from the Volunteers before they fired was stated at the inquest on P.C. Goulding, of the Shanghai Municipal Police, who was accidentally shot by Chapel Volunteers whilst searching in a house for a thief in the North Szechuan Road, Shanghai.

The proprietor of the shop said that on the night in question he was awakened by the barking of a dog at about 3 a.m. After turning up the lights some one told him that a mosquito curtain on the drying stage was missing. He saw a white parcel and thought it to be the curtain. After a few minutes the parcel was blown by the wind. Witness then realized that a thief was at work and called out, "Stop thief." He told his shop assistant to wait for the thief and call a policeman. His wife, another shop assistant, a maid servant and witness went down.

TWO SHOTS.

Witness could see the thief.
After a few minutes a foreigner came in. Witness said to him in English, "There is the thief." The foreigner then laid his two hands on the roof. As the house was old several tiles fell down. Then, as the foreigner put his right leg on the roof, witness heard two shots.
The foreigner fell down. On getting down from the drying stage, witness saw three Chinese volunteers and another foreigner.
The Volunteers said, "Who is the proprietor?"

Questioned by the Coroner, the witness said he did not hear anyone call out before the shots were fired. His wife had not called out.
Who did you think the thief was, a foreigner or Chinese? It was too dark and very hard to tell.
The only thing I saw was a white parcel moving.

The wife of the last witness stated that when she saw the foreigner she said, "A thief" has stolen some of my clothing." Soon afterwards three Chinese Volunteers came up. After the shots were fired she said, "Don't fire, my relatives are upstairs." Witness did not tell the police that any foreigners had gone up. After that she heard the children crying.
On going up to see them, she saw a foreigner lying on the floor.

VOLUNTEERS' SILENCE?

The Coroner—When the Chapel Volunteers rushed upstairs did you hear them call out at all?— (Witness) No.

Assuming the Volunteers had called out do you think that you would have heard them?—I cannot say.

CRY OF "ROBBERS".

P. C. Ernest Burton, of Hongkew police-station, said that on the night in question he met deceased, who was also on leave, in the Asahi Bar, Nanziang Road, at 9.30. They left at 12.30 and went back to the station, going out again to the Savoy Cafe, North Szechuan Road Extension. They left this place at 3 a.m. to go back to the station. There was a crowd outside the shop and they heard the cry, "Robbers."

"THEY'VE GOT ME."

Goulding was leading in his ricksha (witness continued). They both stopped and went into the shop. As witness went in Gould-ing was going upstairs. Witness was given to understand by the woman that thieves were upstairs.
He followed Goulding. At the top of the stairs, Goulding tried to get on the roof. When the shots were fired witness was at the top of the stairs. By holding Goulding's legs, witness helped him on to the roof. Then the shots were fired

Seaplanes Specially Adapted.

Cairo, March 1.

The first stage of the 11,000 miles flight by the Royal Air Force to Cape Town, under the leadership of Wing Commander Palford, with five officers and two mechanics, has been completed by the arrival at Asuit, from Heliopolis, of four Fairey 3D seaplanes, fitted with under-carriages, instead of floats each having one Napier-Lion 450 horsepower engine.

The flight is following the route mapped out by the R. A. F. at the end of the war, when dense bush and tropical jungles were cleared and aerodromes established 200 miles apart.

The trip and return are expected to occupy ten weeks. There will be no attempts at record-breaking.—Reuter.

CHEMICAL SUPREMACY.

GERMANY'S DESPERATE EFFORT.

London, 2nd February.—The Times' Frankfurt correspondent says that Germany is making desperate efforts to regain her supremacy in the chemical industry. A gigantic trust has been formed to secure the most effective exploitation of the world's markets in every quarter.

He emphasizes the urgent necessity of providing the rising generation of young chemists with a thorough scientific training enabling them to cope with the intensified demands of modern chemical science, especially by chemical technical schools, colleges and universities. The greatest efforts are being made to equip a class of students capable of anticipating the world's requirements, thereby assisting Germany to re-enjoy her former pre-eminence in the chemical world which she is determined at all costs to recover.

MORE "HOWLERS."

SHAKESPEARE AS BAKER.

"The complete Angler" is another name for Euclid, because he wrote all about angles.

This is one of the amusing schoolboy "howlers" in the entertaining selection from entries submitted to the University Correspondent in their annual competition.

In the answers made by schoolboys in history, geography, grammar and literature, the following queer errors occurred:—

Clive committed suicide three times.

Oliver Twist had a very good effect, for people saw the workhouses in a different limelight.

Degrees of Comparison of Bad; Bad, very sick; dead.

Shakespeare was the author of "Omlet."

The plural of ox is Oxo.

Crews is the biggest conjunction in England.

Menai Straits are spanned by a tubercular bridge.

One of the funniest bits of scientific thought is expressed thus:—

Water is composed of two gins. Oxygen and Hydrogin. Oxygen is pure gin. Hydrogin is gin and water.

A budding medical student declared that "doctors now treat patience with ultra-violent rays."

"CHEQUERS."

There is something more than meets the eye in this paradoxical error: "Water may be made hard by freezing, and the hardness removed by boiling it." And could any of our greatest scientific highbrows beat this for lucidity of thought: A circle is a round straight line with a hole in the middle.

One can see the association of ideas in the statement that "Chequers is a public-house near Wales"; George Graves might have told us that "Rhubarb is a kind of celery gone bloodshot," while there is unconscious satire in the remark the lad wrote that "Genius is an infinite capacity for picking brains."

The first book in the Bible, wrote one youngster, "is Guinessis." "The Navy," wrote another, "is sometimes called the Senile Service."

THE JAZZ BAND!

The boy who wrote: "Christians are only allowed one wife. This is called monotomy," made something more than a mistake, and there is cynicism in the remark that "The Clapham sect lived in Clapham unction."

But of all the unconscious truths juveniles have ever handed down to posterity, the following, which might well have been written after a visit to a jazz pro-

If proof were needed that an eye for the humorous does not impair appreciation of the practical, we should put in evidence the series of observant articles on New Zealand and Australia, which Mr. A. F. Herbert has contributed to the Daily Telegraph. Mr. Herbert was a member of the British Delegation to the Empire Press Conference. Like all his colleagues, he returns warmly appreciative to the variety and vigour of Australian life, and the actual and potential wealth of the continent, and deeply interested in its future. Where Mr. Herbert is critical, we believe he will find many Australians to agree with him. He doubts whether a White Australia can be securely attached to a rigid principle of selective immigration. If, as he says, Australian spaces are to wait for the influx of ready-made farmers with the advertised £300 to £500 of capital, they may wait for ever. The farmers have to be manufactured out of the material available and the capital lent. During the war, any able-bodied man was a potential soldier. Until Australia has filled her vacuum, any able-bodied man with the will to learn should be accepted as a potential farmer. The Dominions cannot expect to skim the cream. And even if they do, there is not enough cream to go round.

DR. SUN'S TOMB.

STONE-LAYING CEREMONY

Canton, March 1. The late Dr. Sun's Burial Committee has telegraphed to the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang and the Nationalist Government informing them that a decision has been reached for holding the foundation stone-laying ceremony of the late Dr. Sun's mausoleum, and to issue invitation cards under the name of the Kuomintang of China, and requesting them to recognise the decision.

The same Committee also telegraphs that the ceremony will take place on the Tiger Hill, at Nanking on March 12, at 3 p.m., and requests that all the civil and military organisations in the various localities be ordered to fly flags at half mast on that day, as a mark of mourning.

The Canton Government has despatched Tang Chak-yu as its representative to offer sacrifice at the late Dr. Sun's mausoleum.

Mr. Sun Foo will leave for Shanghai with Tang Chak-yu to attend the stone-laying ceremony.

General Li Chai-sum has telegraphically instructed General Chang Fat-foi to send his whole division to Sunwai and Kengmoon.

Owing to the transportation of troops, the Canton-Samehun train service will be temporarily suspended until the completion of transportation.

General Chow Yam-loy denies the report of the outbreak of fighting in the East River districts, and states that it is only the relief of troops in the various localities, which is taking place.—Wah Kiu Yat Po.

LOCAL JUNK PIRATED.

NEWS REACHES COLONY AFTER ONE MONTH.

Master and Passenger Murdered.

News of the occurrence of a piracy in the Sun Tak district, Chinese waters, has reached the local authorities in a most peculiar manner, after an interval of over a month.

The report gives information of the murder of the master of a junk and a passenger, and the kidnapping of three other passengers, together with the seizure of the junk and a cargo of tobacco. No official information has been received owing to the outrage taking place in Chinese waters, and no confirmation of the report can be obtained.

The news was received in a circuitous way, and a report was made to the Water Police Station yesterday. It appears that a young Chinese woman of No. 110 Woo Sung Street, Yaumati, received a letter addressed to her father from an uncle in Canton, and owing to her parent's absence from the Colony, she opened the letter, which gave details of the piracy.

It stated that the writer's younger brother, who was the master of a cargo boat, left Yaumati on January 27, with a consignment of tobacco leaves, and when nearing Man Kwing Sha, in the Sun Tak district, at 3 a.m. on the 31st, a number of armed men boarded the junk. After shooting the master they threw him overboard. One of four passengers who were on the junk was treated in a similar manner, while the other three men were kidnapped. The master's wife and daughter were wounded.

On receipt of the news the girl consulted a friend, who, on the advice of other friends, made a report to the local Police.

Elizabeth Arden says:

Don't mistake the cultivation of loveliness for make-up. They are miles apart! It is wisdom of course to make subtle use of fine toilet accessories to enhance and accent the features and the natural colouring. But it is tragic to try to hide blemishes with cosmetics for each year you will grow more and more dependent on these artificial means of concealing the ravages of your unwisdom.

Learn to care for your skin scientifically to keep it young and naturally lovely. Quickened the circulation that carries off poisons and brings fresh colour to the cheeks. Drive away all signs of age by holding the keen contour and the radiant sparkle of youth.

EDUCATION
PROBLEMS.

Judging from the conclusions reached by the Committee appointed in Singapore to consider the feasibility of industrial and technical education and the types of classes and institutions required, the problem with which the Straits authorities are faced is in many respects the same as that confronting the Government here. As in Hongkong, so in Singapore, the locally-born Chinese are insatiable in their demands for education, with the result that at the commencement of every school year hundreds have to be turned away because there is no room in the educational institutions for them. Streams of boys, we are told, are being turned out with Junior or Senior Cambridge certificates and these are finding it increasingly difficult to secure employment, as they wish, above all else, to take up nothing other than clerical work. The idea, therefore, of providing special technical education for such students is not looked upon with much favour by the Committee, as, even were it provided, there seems to be little doubt that the facilities would not be taken advantage of to any marked extent.

This craze to become clerks, or to enter employment of a "like character, is not confined to Asiatics, however, as is shown by some recent comments of Lord Southwark, Chairman of the Education Committee of the London County Council, who says it is resulting in the market being flooded with clerks and unemployed who have a smattering of knowledge on innumerable subjects but are masters of none. His observations were made in the course of a speech suggesting that the educational system which produces such results is at fault, but at the moment we are not concerned with that aspect of the question. It is the inclination of the student rather than the aim of educationists which we have particularly in mind. As to the cause for this widespread desire to enter clerical employment, we think it is largely to be found in one suggestion put forward by Lord Southwark—namely, a growing distaste for manual labour. In other words, too many young men of the present day want what are popularly termed "clean jobs."

Here in Hongkong, it has been found that many students who even succeed in getting degrees at the University do not hesitate to discard the specialised knowledge which they have acquired if they see an opportunity of taking up some non-technical work which they think will pay them better financially. All too many seek Western education for the simple reason that they think it a sure means of enabling them to earn more money, and they shun manual labour because of a belief that such work is only fit for coolies. Education for education's sake—for the attainment of true culture—is largely discounted; and that, most assuredly, is a sign of the times which is much to be regretted.

Chinese and The Races.

One of the noticeable features of this year's Races is the fact that the Chinese are attending in stronger force than for quite a number of years past. Prior to the terrible disaster which marred the race meeting of 1918, there was always a large number of Chinese present—in fact, it was they who helped to make Race Week here so much of a general holiday. But following that disaster, there were several years during which the attendance of Chinese was extremely low, and the special concrete stands which the Government caused to be erected in place of the makeshift stands were not very well filled. But of late years—and this year it is especially so—there has been a much larger attendance, which goes to prove that time effaces most things, even the prejudices of our Chinese friends. Yesterday afternoon there was a veritable "crush" in the Chinese stand and not a few Chinese punters in the vicinity of the Cash Sweep and Pari-Mutuel booths. Inside the course, there was the usual large crowd of interested natives, apparently with nothing else to do but to watch the colourful "merry-go-round." On the bit of grass land between the Civil Service Club ground and the track was quite a concourse of people with attention divided between the shoutings of the hawkers of weird-looking delicacies and the doings in the distant race enclosure. There were a few "cheap-jack" shows going on behind tantalising sheets of canvas and there was all the bustle and fuss of the Chinese counterpart of what goes on on the heaths of Ascot and Epsom at Home. There was little indeed to suggest either strike or boycott, and if there were not quite so many non-Chinese at the Races this year, it can truthfully be said that there were as many Chinese as ever.

INDUSTRY FAIR.

ITS BIG SUCCESS CONFIRMED.

Rugby, March 1.
 Mr. A. M. Samuel, Under Secretary for Overseas Trade, stated in the House of Commons that a meeting of the Advisory Committee of exhibitors at the British Industry Fair had unanimously expressed the opinion that the Fair had been a success and urged that it should be continued permanently. It was impossible to estimate the business done, he said, but his information was that from the viewpoint of volume of actual business and the setting up of connections for future business, the Fair was the most successful held since the war. It was visited by 1,250 overseas buyers and 56,000 Home buyers as compared with 1,000 and 24,000 respectively last year.—British Wireless.

INDIAN BUDGET.

NO FRESH TAXATION.

Delhi, March 1.
 The Budget which has been presented to the Assembly, shows that the revenue for the past financial year was 131.35 crores of rupees, and the expenditure 130.05 crores. The estimates for next year show revenue at 133.43 crores, and expenditure at 130.38. There is no fresh taxation. The repeal of the cotton excise duty would cost the Government 175 lakhs.—Reuter.

It has been reported to the police that a Chinese male, who attempted to commit suicide with a carpenter's chisel, has been sent to the Kowloon Hospital.

The death took place on Feb. 23, at the General Hospital, Shanghai, of Mr. Kenneth Henry Stuart, late Second Officer, s.s. "Lionsing," aged 44 years.

A box of insects and butterflies has been salvaged from the Hongkong Hotel, intact. As the owner of the box is unknown, he should apply to the Secretary of the Hotel Company.

During the Race Meeting, instructions have been issued to tramcar drivers to ignore the stopping places at Gresson Street, Tai Yuen Street, and Heard Street, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. each day.

The master of a trading junk reports that on February 28th, while sailing from Hongkong to Tai Ping, with a cargo of dried fish, the junk capsized. There were no fatalities, but the whole of the cargo, valued at $400, was lost.

The female owner of a passenger boat reports that yesterday three men engaged the boat to go to Lee Mun. On arriving there they gagged and bound her, and stole jewellery to the value of $35 from her. They then ran up the hillside.

Amongst the unclaimed telegrams listed as lying at Shanghai last week was one for the Chairman of the Labour Union, sent from Moscow. One wonders not only why it has not been delivered but what the connection between Moscow and the labour unions of China may be; also, since the date of receipt is as far back as January 21, whether delivery is being deliberately refused.

The Prince of Wales was one of the Quorn representative in the Inter-Hunt squash rackets tournament at Melton Mowbray when the teams played for a cup the Prince had presented. He lost to Col. H. In the final, Belvoir beat Bedale by two games to none.

COMPANY SHARES.

APPLICATION IN COURT.

On behalf of the Swatow Lace Company, at the Supreme Court this morning, Mr. H. S. Fitzroy applied, before Sir Henry Gollan, for leave to file allotments after the statutory six weeks.

Mr. Fitzroy stated that the Company was incorporated in November, 1924, as a private company, and share dealings were restricted, the restrictions being set out in the Articles of Association. The share capital of the Company was $50,000, divided in one hundred shares of $500 each. A certain number of shares originally allotted had been properly filed, but the man who was responsible for this had since left the Colony and his successor apparently was unaware of the law. Since that time, thirty-three shares had been allotted and it was in respect of this particular allotment that the application was made.

His Lordship granted the application, ordering the returns to be filed within a week.

FRENCH TAXES.

SENATE PROPOSAL REJECTED.

Paris, March 1.
 The Finance Committee of the Chamber, after discussing the financial proposals voted by the Senate, rejected the rate proposed in the Senate Finance Bill for the payments tax, but it intends to propose to the Government a reduction in the rate of this tax, which, with other taxes adopted by the Chamber Committee, would make up the 4½ milliards required. It remains to be seen whether the Government will accept the proposed compromise.—Reuter.

ENGINEERING

POSSIBILITY OF LOCK-OUT.

London, March 1.
 The possibility of an engineering lock-out has been brought a step nearer, owing to a meeting of the strikers of the London firm of printing machine manufacturers, Messrs. Robert Hoe Ltd., which was the origin of the dispute, reaffirming their decision not to return to work.

Their attitude will be further discussed at a joint meeting of the Executive of the seven Unions involved, when efforts will be made to avert a stoppage.—Reuter.

This is how Willie got the name of Willie.
 "Well," said mother, when the baby was two days old, "I think we'll call him Willie." "Oh, no we won't," replied dad, "we'll call him Arthur."

Excerpt from the average English politician's speech in Scotland:
 "The Scot, on the other hand, has the unfortunate habit of governing the English, and the English out of revenge have invented the theory that the Scot has no sense of humour. The Scot cannot have any sense of humour, because he is very careful about money and drinks whisky where ordinary people drink beer. All the stories told against the Scottish nation are, I am told, invented in Aberdeen, and I thoroughly believe it. There is a pawkins about all stories against Scotland which betrays their Caledonian origin."

The daily argument mother uses to get the youngsters to eat their porridge is the most famous cereal story we know of.
 Fashion Note:—Chiffon plus-fours are beginning to be worn by many women dancers in the ball-rooms.
 When the wearer stands still the effect is merely that of a full-skirted frock, but when she moves the two halves fall into place and the divided effect is clearly seen.
 The long steps of the tango, which call for greater freedom of the legs, are partly responsible for the introduction of the new costume.

Maybe the way so many of these girls have so little on is because the dance advertisements usually state that "dress is optional."

avoid irrevocable commitments on the part of any delegate in advance. THE AGENDA ARRANGEMENT.

Rugby, March 1.

In the House of Commons to-day the attention of Sir Austen Chamberlain, the Foreign Secretary, was called to the fact that the agenda of the League Council has been arranged so that the question of the Saar Commission will be brought up first; before Germany has been admitted to the League. Sir Austen Chamberlain was asked whether the Government would endeavour to secure that the matter, so closely concerning German interests, should be postponed until Germany can be represented.

Sir Austen Chamberlain replied that it was the usual practice of the Council to decide matters relating to its procedure, and he had been unable to anticipate the Council's decision on this occasion. As to obtaining a postponement of the Saar question, he did not think that the interests of peace and international understanding were served by members of individual Governments saying what they would or would not do at the meeting of that great world council—the Council of the League—and he did not see how an agreed decision could ever be reached if any Government announced its policy beforehand and was unwilling to make concessions.—British Wireless.

1925 Druses uprising in Syria. A French lieutenant quartered near Damascus lost his cat. The folk of the village wherein he lived were immediately ordered to return the cat or to pay a "war indemnity" of 10 Turkish pounds. A Druse delegation, indignant at the mode of treatment of the French subaltern, travelled to Damascus to present their grievances before General Sarraut, then French High Commissioner for Syria.

Although carrying "sauf-conduits" the unhappy "ambassadors" were arrested by order of the general and sent to Palmyra, where they were forced to find their residence. The cat was never found.

Told by an Aberdonian at the Plumbers' Dinner:
 A man from Aberdeen travelled to London to consult a specialist, taking only a single ticket. On his way back north he roused the curiosity of a fellow passenger who watched him with increasing interest get off the train at each station en route and race along the platform.

At last he asked the Aberdonian to explain himself, and got for answer:—"I've just seen a specialist in London and he told me I might drop down any minute, so I'm booking from station to station."

There was a steady drizzle, and traffic in Piccadilly was held up by a tiny motor car which had stopped in the middle of the roadway, and refused to restart. Over its bonnet bent its blushing owner, furiously but vainly "winding her up."

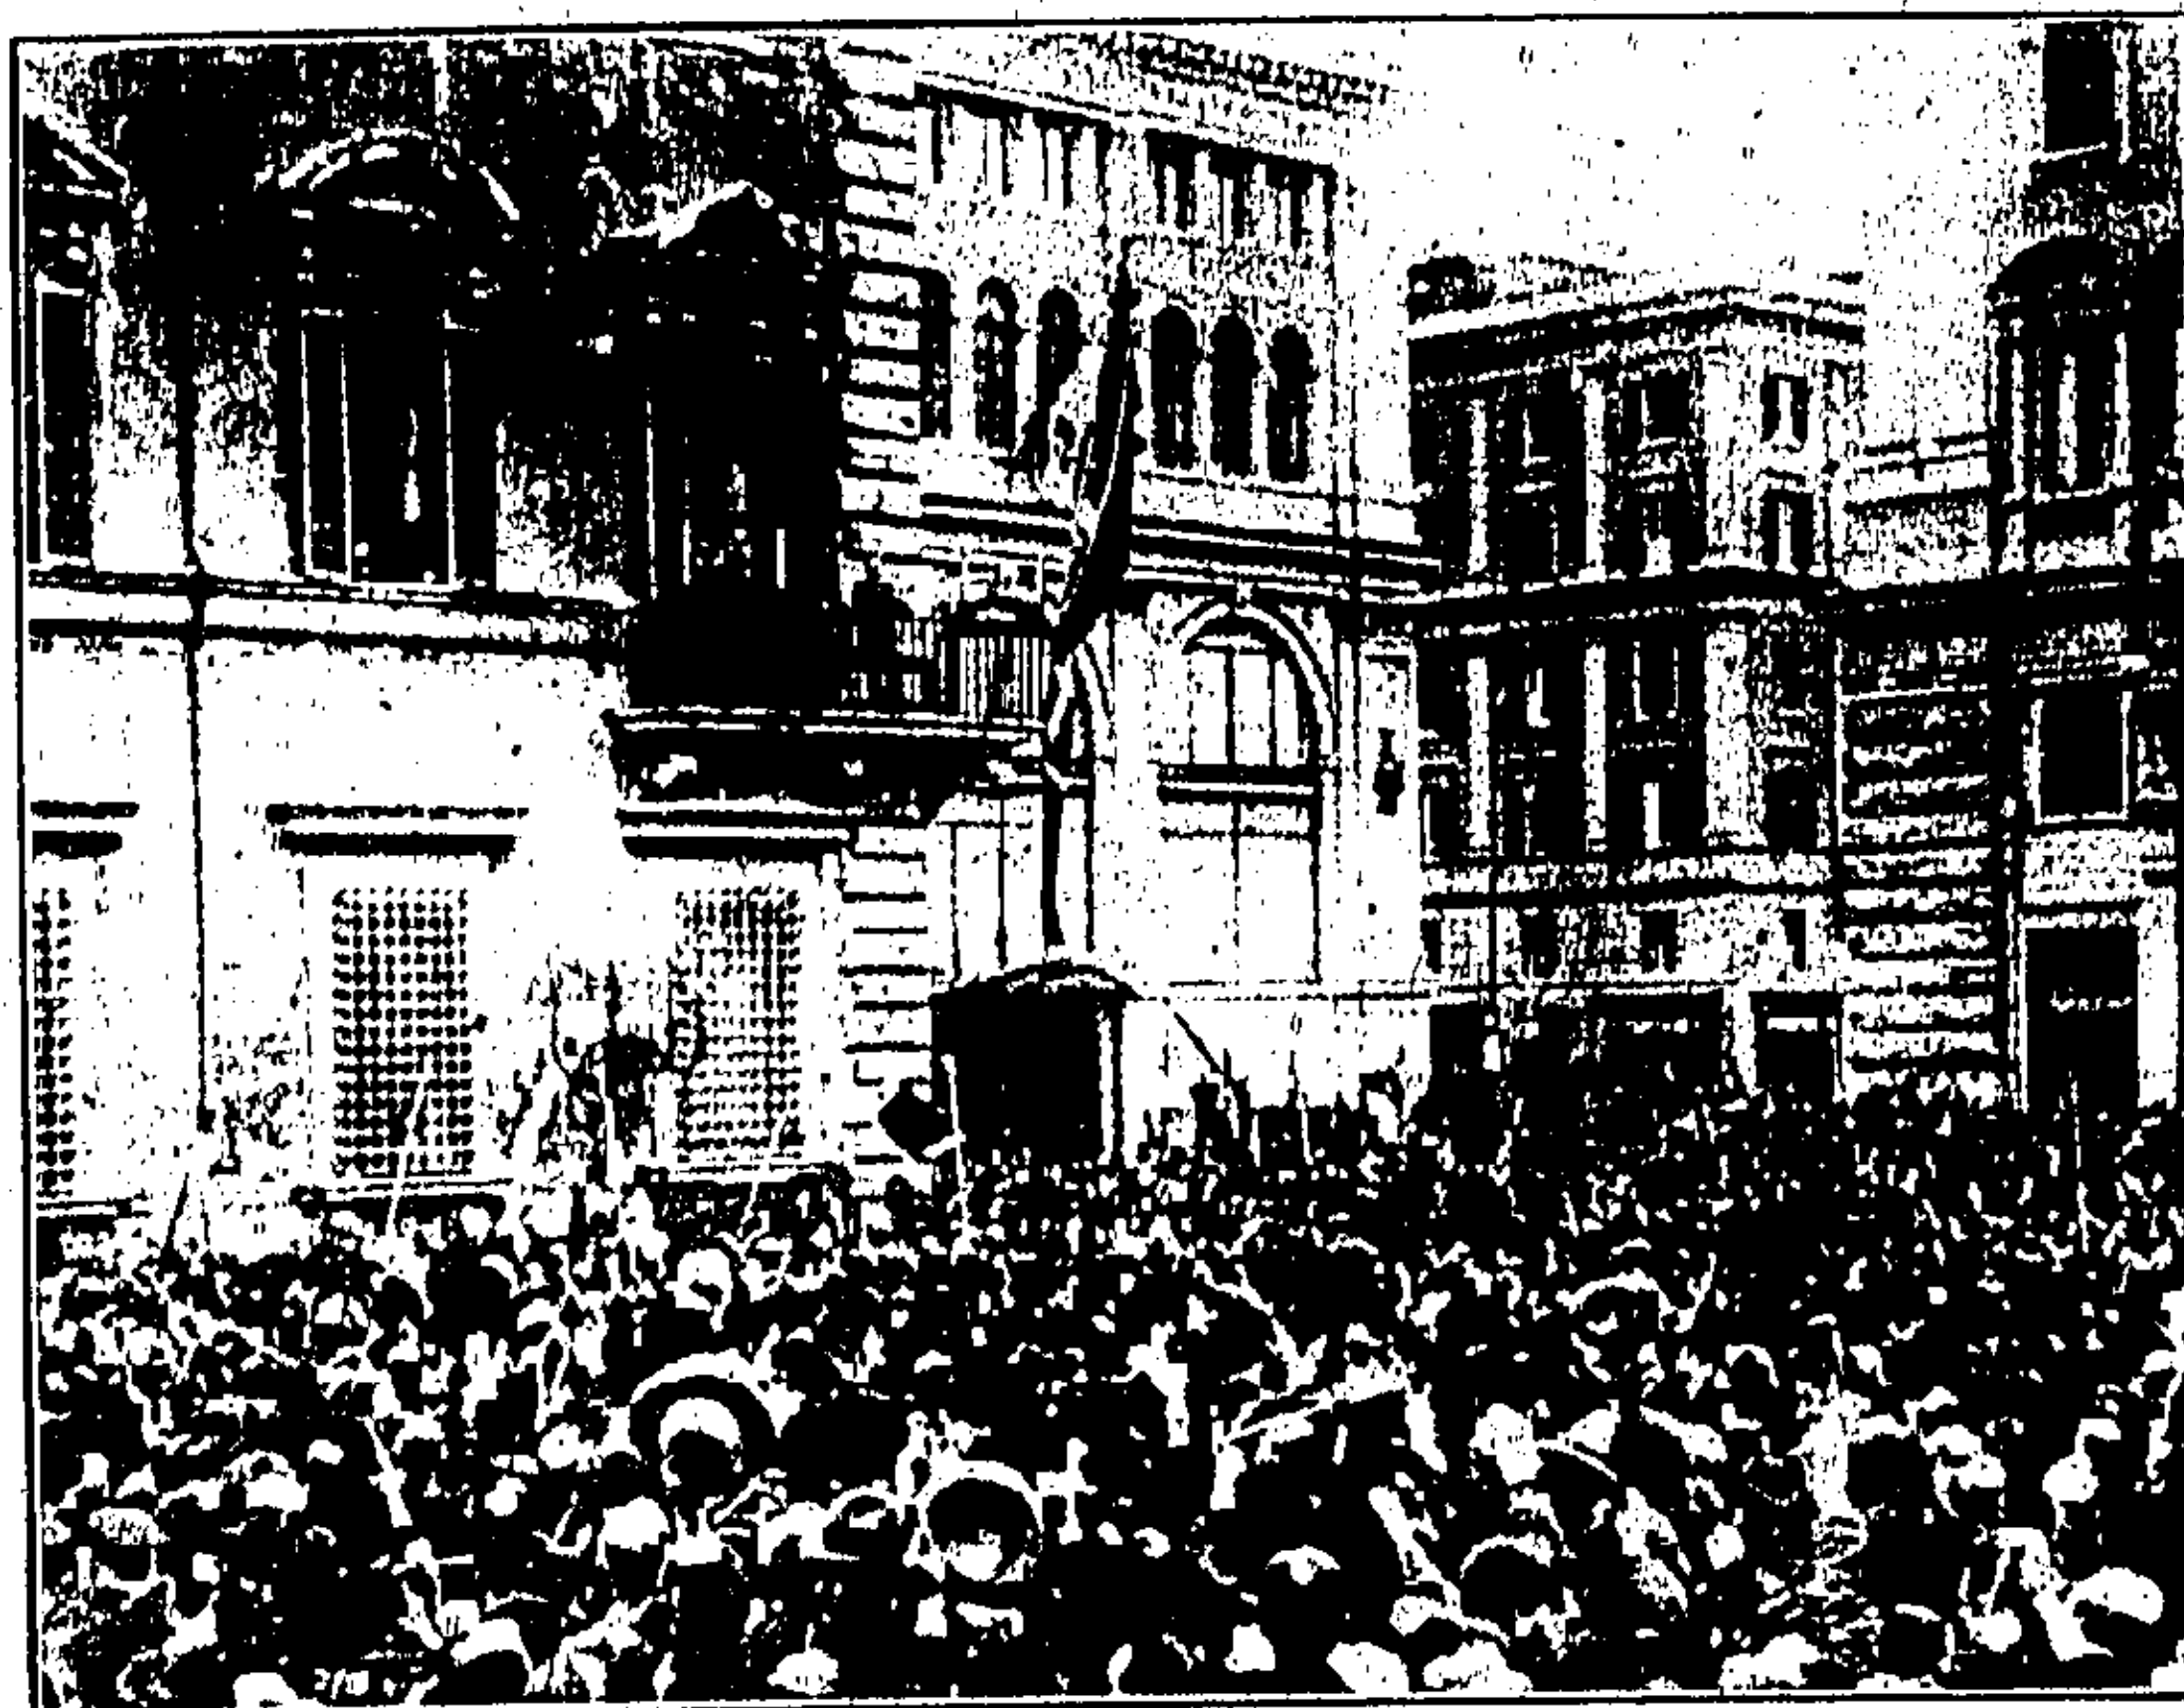

"Hey," called out a bus driver, "why don't you buy one of those eight-day ones?"

Germany's submission to the horrors of democracy is now complete. She is holding a Miss Germany contest.

TWO KILLED; THREE KIDNAPPED.

A letter received from Canton, addressed to a man in Kowloon, states that his brother left with the cargo boat 106712 on January 27th, with a crew of four males and two females, and four passengers, with a cargo of tobacco leaf. About 3 p.m. on January 31st, when near Man Ping, in Chinese waters, a number of armed men boarded the boat, and shot the master and one of the passengers, throwing their bodies overboard. The robbers drove the rest of the crew into the hold, and sailed away, taking three male passengers with them.

AT THE MAGISTRACY.

EXPECTORATING IN COURT.

The disgusting habit of expectorating formed the subject of an incident at the Central Magistracy this morning. While engaged in dealing with a number of cases concerning unlicensed hawkers, Mr. R. E. Lindsell had to break off from the proceedings for a moment while he caused a Chinese to be called up who had been heard to expectorate in a very noisy manner. The culprit seemed to have not the slightest idea of the reason for his sudden arraignment. Rather he thought that it was his case of hawking at the Racecourse yesterday without a licence, that was being given attention in his turn. It was not until the close that, without having given any previous intimation, the Magistrate sprang the surprise. In fine the man $7. $82 delay in respect of the conviction for unlicensed hawking, his Worship said that the $5 fine was for the disgusting behaviour of spitting in Court before a Magistrate. In default of payment, the man was to go to prison for ten days.

AN OPIUM CASE.

One can be a customer of the Government by smoking its high-grade opium. At least this is how one views the matter, after hearing what Mr. McCullum had to say in a statement advanced as an extenuating circumstance for a client who was being charged with being in possession of Macao opium. It was said for the defendant that he was a heavy smoker, had smoked Government opium for the last twenty years, being further well-known to the revenue department, and kept a purchase book in which his large requirements of Government opium were duly recorded. As to the illicit opium complained of, it was left behind by friends who had come down from Macao to spend the New Year with the defendant. The plea was that of only technical possession.

Senior Revenue Officer George Watt replied that it was always difficult for the Department to get information of the presence of this illicit opium. Mr. Lindsell also pointed out that there was always the temptation to smuggle in Macao opium, owing to the latter product being cheaper.

His Worship imposed a fine of $500.

UNLUCKY CHAUFFEUR.

Exemplifying the truth of the saying that one misfortune brings another, a Chinese chauffeur, already distressed by the position in which he was placed after knocking down and seriously injuring a small boy, found himself called upon to give an explanation concerning a package of opium alleged to have been in his possession. A Chinese detective who was called out in connection with this accident, which occurred recently at Quarry Point, took to searching the driver, without any definite aim or purpose, and his search resulted, it is said, in the finding of the illicit opium in a package. It was further said that the driver pressed the detective to accept the opium as an inducement not to make any further fuss.

The boy, who was taken to the hospital for treatment of a fracture to the leg, has since been discharged from hospital, and with the view to obtaining his evidence—considered by Inspector Field to be that from an impartial witness—Mr. Lindsell decided to remand the case.

Our Portrait is of Mr. WALTER WHITE, of 41, Brompton, Chislewick, London, England, who writes:—

"Some three years ago I had a swelling in the knee cap. One night I knocked my knee which caused a little ulcer which in time, no matter what I did, developed across the whole knee.
I had one large gaping wound, and with all the care and attention that wound was open for 15 months. Being an all-round athlete, holder of many cups and prizes, I began to give up all hope of ever taking my place again among the athletes. One day one of my fellow workmen inquired how my leg was,
and told me it was 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' I wanted. That day I bought a bottle, and when I had finished it I was not only surprised myself, but all my workmates could see improvement.
I could bend my knee a little and that gave me encouragement, so I persevered with it and am glad to say seven bottles completely cured me. I am now as well as ever, and am still holding my own as an athlete."

Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes, and expels

SHANGHAI BOY GETS BRONZE CROSS.

Plucky Encounter With Armed Robber.

Lieut.-Gen. Sir Robert Baden-Powell has awarded the Bronze Cross, the highest award a scout can receive, to Patrol Leader Alexander Jimchouch, of Shanghai, for risking his life in assisting the French Police to capture an armed robber.

It was on the evening of July 9 last when Jimchouch, a 16 year-old Russian member of the French Municipal School troop, so splendidly upheld the traditions of Scoutcraft, says the N. C. D. News. While in his house, 2 Avenue Dubail, he heard a commotion in the street outside. Boy-like, he rushed out to be in the excitement. Almost immediately he saw a man pursued by the police and several bystanders. As the criminal ran he fired to keep off his pursuers, whereupon Jimchouch took cover behind a concrete lamp post.

When the robber was about five feet from the youth something seemed to go wrong with his revolver, the hammer apparently sticking for an instant. This gave Jimchouch his opportunity and he grappled with the fugitive, seizing the hand which held the revolver. The man, however, was able to break away and as he ran fired on the boy, the first shot entering the shoulder and coming out at the elbow. The second, luckily, missed. This delay enabled the Annamite police to gain upon their quarry and he was eventually shot down in Avenue Joffre.

The Chief of the French Police wrote a highly commendatory letter in appreciation of Jimchouch's courage and accompanied the letter with a gift of money. Subsequently the Commissioner of the local Boy Scouts Association recommended him for the bronze cross for gallantry.

TO-NIGHT'S A.D.C. PERFORMANCE.

This evening sees the first performance of the A.D.C.'s spectacular production, of which there was a dress rehearsal at the Theatre Royal last night. It was quite evident to all those who were present that the ever-haunting fears of Hongkong audiences that on the first night no play can ever be ready and in good running order, is in this case absolutely groundless.

The play goes with a swing that reflects great credit on all concerned, and credit must also be given to those who designed and painted the wonderful scenic effects.

It was unquestionably an inspiration on the part of the sagacious Secretary of the A.D.C. to arrange a matinee for Thursday afternoon, as the play is one which will attract the younger generation, if only by reason of its gorgeous setting and its savour of the magical. It should be especially noted that at the matinee—4.30 p.m. sharp—all schools and children are admitted to the stalls at half the regular price.

This matinee will enable many who might have found it impossible to attend an evening performance to make sure of not missing an A.D.C. production that promises to be as successful as any hitherto put on.

Meanwhile as the booking is going in the usual local way—that is in a last minute rush—those who wish to make sure of their seats should lose no time in securing them at the earliest opportunity this morning.

NAVAL BOXING.

OPENING OF CHINA SQUADRON CHAMPIONSHIPS.

The preliminary rounds of the China Squadron Championship Tournament were fought at Murray Barracks last evening, and the competitions will continue tonight. Vice-Admiral Sir Alexander Sinclair and many naval officers were interested spectators, and there was a large attendance of bluejackets.

The fare provided demonstrated that the majority of the contestants need further tuition before they pass out of the novice class, but the fighting was wholehearted and the men stood up to their work. The majority of the contestants were men from the newly arrived Vindictive.

Results:

NOVICES.

Lightweights: A. B. Broadhurst (Vindictive) beat A. B. Young (Hawkins) on points.

Featherweights: A. B. Appleton (Iroquois) gained a points decision over Stoker Foxley (Hawkins); A. B. Rowe (Vindictive) beat Roy Williams (Vindictive) on points; Boy Turner (Vindictive) was awarded the decision in a contest with Stoker Murphy (Vindictive), who was disqualified for striking with the open glove.

Welterweights: Sign. Thomas (Durban) technically knocked out Stoker Hunter (Despatch) in the first round, the referee stopping the fight; Stoker Perkins (Vindictive) knocked out A. B. Smith (Vindictive) in the third round; A. B. Stowers (Vindictive) beat Marine Durn Vindictive on points after an extra round was ordered; L. Stoker Renton (Sub. L. 15) defeated won over Tel. Taylor (Sub. L. 1); who retired in the first round with an injured wrist; Sign. Syner (Tamar) beat Sign. Thomas (Durban) on points.

Middleweights: Sign. Marshall (Hawkins) beat Tel. Golding (Sub. L. 3) easily on points; Stoker Roberts (Vindictive) defeated A. B. Flint (Despatch) on points; A. B. Officers' Heavyweights: Pay Sub. Lt. Nixon (Vindictive) defeated Midshipman Podger (Hawkins) on points.

CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Stoker Dore (Sub. L. 2) fought aggressively throughout his lightweight championship bout with Stoker Rowe (Magnolia) and after an entertaining scrap he got the verdict.

In the welterweights championship class A. B. Webb (Titanic) was knocked out by Ldg. Stoker Reynolds (Sub. L. 3) within half a minute.

INTERNATIONAL "SOCCER."

WALES BEAT ENGLAND.

London, March 1. Playing at Selhurst in dull weather and before 20,000 spectators, Wales beat England at "Soccer," by three goals to one.

Play in the first half was rather loose, neither side showing effective combination. Both had several narrow escapes. Three minutes from the interval, Fowler scored with a fast left-foot shot from Crosswell's centre, the half-time score being Wales 1, England 0.

After twelve minutes from the restart Urwin placed the ball nicely for Walker to head through for England, but directly afterwards W. Davies scored with a long left-foot shot for Wales. The third goal for Wales came after seven minutes, Fowler netting with a Pym out of goal. For a long time the Welshmen were penned in their own quarters but the Englishmen, although making determined efforts, finished their attacks badly.—Reuter.

CHARLES HOFF.

WORLD'S GREATEST ALL-ROUNDER.

Charles Hoff, the Norwegian athlete, who as reported yesterday, broke the world's record for the indoor pole vault by clearing thirteen feet five and one eighth inches, is probably the greatest all-round athlete in the world, for while he has gained most of his fame as a pole-vaulter (he holds the world record for the event) he is also a notable past-timer in the sprints, middle distance runs, hurdles, high and broad jumps and discus throwing.

As a versatile performer Hoff, who is only 23, is pretty much in a class by himself and a glance at his record appended speaks for itself:

100 meters	10 4-5 sec.
200 meters	21 4-5 sec.
400 meters	48 4-5 sec.
800 meters	1 min. 55 9-10 sec.
1500 meters	4 min. 15 sec.
Broad jump	23 ft. 1 in.
High jump	6 ft.
Hop, step and jump	50 ft.
Pole-vault	13 ft. 11 13-16 ins.
Discus	133 ft. 8 ins.
Shot-put	43 ft. 4 ins.
Javelin	190 ft.
110-meter hurdle	16 sec.

When an athlete has built up the proficiency in fourteen track and field accomplishments as Hoff has, nominating a rival for all-round work is extraordinarily difficult. Only one of his marks—the pole vault—is a topnotch effort, several of the others are close enough to cause a certain amount of apprehension.

Hoff is likely to prove popular in America. Far more so than the taciturn Paavo Nurmi. He speaks English well, and is possessed of a charming personality.

It is fairly easy to see why the Norwegian is the world's champion pole-vaulter. To be a star in that event it is necessary to have height, long legs, long arms and little weight. In fact you need to be everything except a living skeleton.

Hoff is six feet two and weighs only 147 lbs. In Europe he is nicknamed the "Bambooz."

KOWLOON MARATHON.

WON BY NAVAL COMPETITOR.

Last Year's Winner Fifth.

Despite his strenuous race on Saturday, when he was beaten in the China Squadron Marathon Race by Sub Lieut. Newham, by the narrow margin of a few seconds, Leading Seaman Hobden of H. M. S. Despatch, surprised the spectators yesterday by winning the seventh annual marathon race organised by the St. Andrew's Young Men's Club, being over half a minute in front of Gunner Newham of the Royal Artillery. The time was six seconds better than that of Hannen, last year's winner.

There were 32 entries received, but only 22 men faced the starter. The competitors got well away, but after the first mile a number found the pace too fast and dropped behind. Much was expected of last year's winner, who was among those in the lead. On rounding the bend into Kowloon City Road, however, he developed a stitch and was forced to rest. He resumed soon afterwards, but was troubled again, and at Bailey's shipyard made a third halt.

From the commencement, Hobden took the lead which he gradually increased. He was closely followed by Newham and Hesterman. When passing through Hunghom he had a lead of about one hundred yards, and, keeping the same distance between him and Newham, he won by half a minute. Newham came in second, with Hesterman third, Hannen finishing fifth.

The first three men and their respective times were: 1. Leading Seaman Hobden (H. M. S. Despatch), 34 min. 54 sec. 2. Gunner Newham (Royal Artillery), 35 min. 20 4/5 sec. 3. Pte. Hesterman (St. Andrew's Club), 37 min.

With the exception of two competitors, all completed the course. The prizes were presented at the conclusion of the race in the Church Hall by Mrs. G. E. Arrow-Smith, wife of the president of the Club. Prior to the distribution, the Rev. G. R. Lindsay, vice-president, referred to the popularity of the annual Kowloon marathon race, and expressed pleasure at the large number of entrants from the Services. Making reference to Leading Seaman Hobden's victory, Mr. Lindsay said that it was the more creditable because he had run on Saturday and secured second place in the Naval marathon.

After giving away the cups, Mrs. Arrow-Smith congratulated the winners, and encouraged those who failed to finish among the first three to make another attempt next year. She apologised for the absence of the President owing to indisposition. The race was started outside St. Andrew's Church and the distance was approximately 6 miles. The course taken was along Nathan Road, past Kowloon mortuary to Kowloon City, then by way of Victoria Home through Hunghom, along Chatham Road, into Nathan Road, by Middle Road, back to the Church.

The following were the officials:—Judges: Rev. G. R. Lindsay and Mr. P. Sands (Vice-Presidents); Starter: Mr. C. Whitley. Time-keepers: Messrs. Frank N. W. Doodha, Baldwin, and Bannister. The committee wishes to thank all those who so willingly helped in the success of the event, and special mention must be made of the kind services of Dr. Hollins, and the gentlemen who placed their motor cars at the disposal of the Club.

FRENCH DEBT.

FURTHER DISCUSSIONS IN LONDON EXPECTED.

Rugby, March 1.

It is expected that the French Finance Minister, M. Doumer, will come to London next week to take up the negotiations with the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Winston Churchill, regarding France's war debt to Great Britain.

The provisional agreement reached in last year's discussion between M. Caillaux and Mr. Churchill was on the basis of an average annual payment of £12,500,000.

As was generally expected, the race resolved itself into a struggle for premier honours between Sir Paul's and Messrs.
Toog and Priestley's stables. It was a memorable tussle, and the Dahlia won practically at the post. From a good start, Saucy Sue forged ahead, with the Dahlia in close attendance. On approaching the stand for the first time, the ponies were well bunched, with Total Abstinence on the outside berth and Sir Paul's selection slightly leading. Saucy Sue and Pretty Polly were running close together, with Lady Love last. At the football stand, the Dahlia still led, with Pretty Polly having come up into second place, whilst Saucy Sue had fallen back and given place to King of Troy. A further change was registered at the Rock, where Pretty Polly was seen to be leading, King of Troy lying third and Total Abstinence last, Lady Love making a big effort to get into second place.

Entering the straight, Pretty Polly was still leading the field, with Glorious Dahlia close behind. There was then a great fight for the winning position.
Nearing the post, the Dahlia and Pretty Polly were running neck and neck, but, amidst great excitement, the former just managed to get in front and win with half a length to spare. Lady Love was third six lengths away, whilst King of Troy finished fourth, Saucy Sue fifth and Total Abstinence last.

POLICEMAN SHOT.

and deceased exclaimed, "They've got me." When witness saw the Volunteers with their guns presented at him, he held up his hands.
The Volunteers then searched him and he gave them to understand that he was a foreign policeman.
They then went away.

VOLUNTEERS IGNORANT OF CASUALTIES?

Continuing, witness said that on going to Goulding, he found him conscious. A few minutes later he practically collapsed and asked for an ambulance to be sent for him.
Witness heard no challenge before the firing and did not see the Volunteers again.

The Coroner—Is it possible that they did not know that anybody had been shot?—(Witness) Yes.

But after Goulding had been shot and you had said you were a policeman, they simply turned round and went away?—Yes.

Chief Det.-Insp. Reeves said he was present on the 19th instant at the trial of the three Chapoi Volunteers at the Military Court of the Martial Law Force.
Constable Burton, the shopkeeper and his assistant gave evidence.
The three Volunteers told the Court that they challenged three or four times, saying, "Who are you? If we do not receive an answer, we will shoot."

In recording an open verdict, Mr. King said that it was most lamentable that a young man had met his death in the circumstances shown by the evidence. He was a member of the Shanghai Municipal Police Force and although he was not on duty at the time, he had answered to the call of duty. This must be no small measure of consolation to his relatives in their sorrow.
